

Increasing Hunger Awareness

One in seven households struggle for access to enough and the right kinds of food; a basic human need and a prerequisite for an active, healthy life.

While the signs of food insecurity and hunger in the United States are more subtle than the swollen bellies of starving children portraying hunger in developing nations, the impact remains startling and profound.

Friday, February 3, 2012

Soup & Warm Bread Served

11:30 am to 1:00 pm

First Presbyterian Church

Ample Parking Available

525 N Broadway

Enjoy a delicious bottomless bowl of soup
from local restaurants. Souvenir bowl for the first 200 guests.

$15

(cash or check at the door)

Advanced tickets receive 10% discount Groups of 10+ receive 20% discount

Take-out Available, Order by January 31 – Orders for 15+ Receive Free Delivery

Pay with credit card by calling 316.264.9303, or mail check to IFM, 829 N Market, Wichita KS 67214

Questions about the event: Call 316-264-9303 or visit www.IFMnet.org

Inter-Faith Ministries provides a variety of critical services to the Wichita community through two homeless shelters and 104 low-cost apartments with case manager support; addresses issues food insecurity and provides emergency food assistance; collects gently used coats and food for those in need during the holiday season.

Inter-Faith Ministries 829 N Market, Wichita KS 67214